Mount Olive is a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and a Reconciling in Christ congregation. It is a community in and of the city where all are welcome in every aspect of congregational life. We believe that the liturgy is central to our life together, that our weekly gathering around Word and Sacrament strengthens us for our work as people of God in this and in every place.

Focus on the Season: 5th Sunday after Pentecost, Lect. 12 B

“Now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation!” Paul says. Now in this world we are in the storm, the boat is almost swamped; but Jesus is here, and when we call, Jesus will calm the storm. “Who is this,” the disciples wondered, “that even the wind and sea obey him?” We are invited to trust the power of God’s creating Word in Christ, a power greater than all that we fear.

The Commemorations

June 24: St. John the Baptist - John said, "[Jesus] must increase, but I must decrease." And so his birth is celebrated half a year before Jesus', just as the daylight in the northern hemisphere begins to wane. Jesus honored John as being the greatest prophet.

June 25: Presentation of the Augsburg Confession, 1530 - On this day in 1530 the German and Latin editions of the Augsburg Confession were presented to the Emperor Charles of the Holy Roman Empire. The Augsburg Confession was written by Philipp Melanchthon and endorsed by Martin Luther, and consists of a brief summary of points in which the reformers saw their teaching as either agreeing with or differing from that of the Roman Catholic Church of the time.

June 25: Philipp Melanchthon, renewer of the church, died 1560 - Though he died on April 19, Philipp Melanchthon is commemorated today because of his connection with the Augsburg Confession. Colleague and co-reformer with Martin Luther, Melanchthon was a brilliant scholar, known as "the teacher of Germany."

June 27: St. Cyril, Bishop of Alexandria, died 444 - Cyril defended the orthodox teachings about the person of Christ. After a conflict involving all of the major Christian leaders of the time, it was decided that Cyril's interpretation, that Christ's person included both divine and human natures, was correct.

June 28: St. Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons, died around 202 - This important early church leader tried very hard to hold to the faith handed down by the apostles. An opponent of the movement known as gnosticism, Irenaeus was one of the first to speak of the church as catholic, or linked together.

June 29: St. Peter and St. Paul, Apostles - These two strong-willed apostles are the pillars of the church in the first generation after Christ. Peter was one of the Twelve, one who both offered a glorious confession of faith and later denied knowing Jesus. Paul once led the persecution of Christians, then was converted and helped bring the faith to non-Jewish people.

into membership today: Bruce Burnside.
